

INVESTOR PRESENTATION REVISED TO INCLUDE ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURE

Variscan Mines Limited (“Variscan” or the “Company” or the “Group”) (ASX:VAR) advises that on 21 June 2021 it released an Investor Presentation to the market. The presentation included two peer comparison tables which have been revised to include additional information.

- Page 10 included a summary of head grade information for existing operating zinc mines around the world sourced from publically available information including Company Reports and a Mining Data Solutions website and compared it to the historic data for the San Jose – Novales Mine for the period 1970 – 1998, in response to an ASX request Variscan has added the specific source data and relevant dates for each of the references.
- Page 17 included a comparison of mean zinc grades by mineralised interval width for recent drilling between Variscan, and two other ASX listed exploration entities. Variscan has reviewed the information provided on this slide and has made additional disclosure so that both the sources and the meaning of the chart are clear.
